PARENTAL ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I/we understand that by Baptising my/our child that I/we undertook to be the first educators of our child in the Catholic Faith. I/we call to mind the responsibility I/we have of raising my/our child in the Catholic faith - training my/our child to love God and neighbour as Christ taught us - a responsibility which I/we undertook at my/our child's Baptism.

I/we pledge that I/we want to continue responding to this commitment and assist my/our child to celebrate the sacrament of First Reconciliation

I/We understand the Eucharist is a Sacrament which continues the initiation into faith begun at Baptism. The Eucharist is the primary way that the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and the sending of the Spirit continue to be present for us. We receive Our Lord so that we may share more deeply in his life as children of God.

I/We call to mind the responsibility I/We have of raising my/our child in the Catholic faith - training my/our child to love God and neighbour as Christ taught us - a responsibility which I/we undertook at my child's Baptism.

I/we agree to attend Mass weekly thereby setting an example to my/our child.

I/We profess my/our faith in God the Father, in Jesus Christ His Son, and in the Holy Spirit.

Signed:Parent/Guardian

I find myself unable to profess my faith as explained above. This decision is made in conscience. However, I do wish my child to receive the Sacrament of First Reconciliation/Sacrament of First Eucharist and will assist my spouse, as best I can, in raising my child as a responsible member of God's family, the Church.
